

AILA-UMI PRIZE FRANCO MONTAGNA

for a PhD Thesis in Mathematical Logic and Applications

The AILA (Italian Association of Logic and its Applications) and UMI (Italian Mathematical Union) announce a prize of 2,000 Euros, dedicated to the memory of Franco Montagna, for a PhD thesis on topics related to Mathematical Logic and its applications. In accordance with its Regulation (<http://www.ailalogica.it/pdf/premi/premio-montagna.pdf> and http://umi.dm.unibo.it/wp-content/uploads/2016/02/PREMIO_AILA-UMI_Montagna.pdf) the Prize is awarded to a PhD doctor who graduated defending a doctoral thesis on Mathematical Logic in the three years from the 1st of January 2020 until the 31st December 2022.

Applications, and candidatures by academic bodies, research institutions, scientific academies, or individual experts (according to Article 2 of the Regulation) must be submitted by the 31st of January 2023 at both the following email addresses: segretario@ailalogica.it and presidente@ailalogica.it, which shall promptly inform the UMI Presidency.

Applications must contain the following information:

- name, surname and e-mail address of the candidate,
- the institution where the PhD was awarded,
- defense date,
- name, surname and e-mail address of the PhD supervisor.

The following has to be attached in pdf format:

- copy of the thesis (even in a provisional version),
- summary of the thesis (at most 5 pages),
- any scientific communications on the thesis topics and any publications extracted from the thesis.

Before the same date as above, the following documents must also be sent at the same addresses (segretario@ailalogica.it and presidente@ailalogica.it):

- letter of recommendation from the PhD supervisor,

- any additional recommendation letters.

The prize, indivisible, will be awarded by a commission of 5 members, including 3 appointed by the AILA Board, on a proposal from the AILA Presidency, and 2 by the UMI Scientific Committee, on a proposal from the UMI Presidency Board.

The Commission, appointed by the 15th of March 2023, designates its President among its members. Commission decisions can be taken by majority vote, and as for the merit, are unquestionable. The Commission may work electronically. In the absence of adequate scientific applications or candidature, the Commission may decide not to award the prize.

The Commission concludes its work by the 30th of May 2023, drawing up a final report, explaining the reasons of its conclusions and mentioning a maximum of two other candidates considered particularly deserving.

The report is published on AILA and UMI sites and UMI Newsletter.

The award ceremony takes place on the occasion of next “Congresso UMI”.

For more information, please send an e-mail to the AILA Secretary (segretario@ailalogica.it).
